Builder hired for $37 million FedEx project

REJournals.com reported that Meridian Design Build will oversee design and construction on a 239,000-square-foot facility for FedEx in the Pinnacle Business Park on Taylor Road.

Noak announced the project during his State of the Village address in January, saying FedEx was planning to invest $37 in Romeoville. He estimated the facility will bring 400 jobs to the village.

“There’s going to be a lot of cranes in town,” Noak said of the various projects under way or beginning soon.
