THE LOCK UP SELECTS MERIDIAN FOR SELF STORAGE PROJECT

WHEATON, ILL. — Meridian Design Build was selected as general contractor for a planned 81,543-square-foot self storage facility in Wheaton for The Lock Up. The new four-story facility will be located adjacent to the Main Street Marketplace shopping center at the northwest corner of Main Street and Geneva Road. The building will include climate-controlled and drive-up units and feature covered loading bays. Peter Stadler and David Lukas of Meridian are coordinating the project. Partners in Design Architects are providing the architectural services. Watermark Engineering Resources Ltd. is providing the engineering services.
