

Stimulus, Anyone?

Good afternoon, Chicago and welcome to an era where we actually have TWO relatively successful major league sports teams. It's been, we think, at least a decade since that's happened. Speaking of rarities, it was anything but politics as usual at today's SIOR breakfast at the Rosewood in Rosemont.

Pete Schmidt with Meridian Design/Build, Kelly Disser with NAI Hiffman and T. J. O'Brien with DP Partners were just a few of the record crowd in attendance for the breakfast, Rick said. "It's important for us to know about the stimulus package because we need to know the impact it will have on our business and how soon that impact will take place," Roy says. Thankfully, Chicago natives like Secretary of Transportation Ray LaHood and Secretary of Education Arne Duncan are in Washington bringing it all back home for us!
