

Meridian Design Build reported breaking ground at 2765 Spectrum Drive in Elgin on a new 75,200-square-foot office, warehouse, and distribution facility for C.R.

Laurence, source of supplies and equipment serving the glass industry. Scheduled for completion in late March 2006, the project is being developed by Interstate Partners on a 4.9-acre site within Northwest Business Park. Heitman Architects Inc. is providing architectural and structural engineering services for the project.